

We have rules and regulations in Indiana governing unsolicited telephone calls. Your regulations would be weaker than ours. I thinkl you should allow those states that already have rules and regulations regulationg ths to stand. You could set up some type of minimum requirement but if ours exceed yours then you should let ours stand Thank you